"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God." Eph 2:8

Students:

School will dismiss at noon on Wednesday for the Thanksgiving Break. We will have periods 5-8 on Wednesday.

Seniors are reminded to keep an eye on deadlines. We are still in the timeframe when most colleges allow you to apply for free, but many colleges end this offer in the spring. Dordt College has some scholarships that have a priority deadline of Jan 1.

From our Jostens rep: If you missed class ring order day, it's not too late. Use Jostens.com <<http://jostens.com/>> to design your ring and you can order right there! You can pay using PayPal, debit/credit cards or sign up for J-pay for automatic payments on a debit card or credit card. 3 payments over 3 months. No interest or service fees. Order by November 19th and get your ring at the same time as everyone else.

Advance notice: first semester exams are scheduled for December 19, 20, and 21. Please plan accordingly to minimize absences during those days.

AAU Volleyball – The AAU volleyball signup sheet is available online. All interested girls in grades 5-11, please return form with payment to the school office by Monday, November 27.

General Announcements:

Olivia Laning and Carlie Hoekstra participated this past Saturday in the 71st All-state program held in Ames. They were 2 of 1087 musicians that came from all over the state to sing or play their instruments. If you would like to hear their program, it will be broadcast on IPTV on Thursday, Nov. 23, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Have you dusted off the instrument and getting those chops in shape? The alumni and post-high band will be practicing on Monday, November 27, beginning at 7:00 pm. Bring your instrument, music and a stand if you have one. We will be practicing again, but will discuss the best times for participants. If you can not make this practice, email Laura Kuiper at lkuiper@trinitychs.org and let her know the best time for practice for you. See you all then! Also, if you haven't contacted Mrs. Kuiper yet, but would still like to participate, email her.
