"Praise the LORD, call upon His name, declare His doings among the people, make mention that His name is exalted." Is 12:46

Students:

Representatives from Dordt's agriculture and pro-tech programs will be meeting with interested students tomorrow, March 9, in the afternoon.

Juniors, just a reminder that the final date to register for the April 17 ACT without a late fee is this Friday, March 12.

Seniors, all elements of the Farmer's Mutual scholarship (your form, the teacher recommendation, and the school counselor recommendation) need to be handed to Mrs. Bloemendaal by the end of the day on Friday, March 12.

This Saturday, March 13, is the state individual speech contest. We have five speech students who will be performing at state: Claire VE, Sierra M, Ava B, Belle S, and Allison Mooy. This week take a moment to give them a high five!

Last Friday was our final day of the 3rd marking period. Report cards are scheduled to be emailed home no later than noon on Friday, March 12.

Eighth Grade Day is March 16. That is the same day is the mid-semester choir concert. No worries. Eighth Grade Day will be over (supper included) in time to get to the concert, which begins at 7:30 PM.

General:

The teachers have been offered contracts for the 2021-2022 school year. Please remember them in prayer. A word of encouragement is always welcome.

A few of our teachers have gotten the first dose of the Covid-19 vaccine. More teachers are signed up to be vaccinated once more doses are available.

The Trinity Christian High School Choirs will be presenting a Mid-Semester choir concert on Tuesday, March 16, at the Hull PR Church, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Both choirs will be singing music in glory to the King! There will be a collection taken for Trinity Christian High.

Mark your calendars for an evening of Protestant Reformed high school band members from Indiana, Michigan, Iowa, and Wisconsin joining together to present a band program, on Friday evening, April 16. More details to be given later.

Grandparents of the senior class at Trinity Christian High School are invited to Grandparent's Day on Friday, March 26, 2021, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. You will have some time to visit your senior in class, enjoy a brief program and be served a delicious meal. Hope to see you there!
