*"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments:
for this is the whole duty of man." Ecclesiastes 12:13*

Teachers enjoyed and benefitted from a very profitable PRTI convention last week in Wisconsin.

There is a 2:30 dismissal scheduled for this week Wednesday, October 25.

J-term is scheduled for January 3, 4, & 5 of 2024.

- If you were planning to lead a sectional for last year's J-term, Trinity will be contacting you via email this week concerning your intentions for this coming January.
- If you have an idea for J-term, whether it be an idea for a project or a sectional you would like to lead, please contact Mr. Regnerus. (jregnerus@trinitychs.org or 712-470-0424)

Report cards for the 1st marking period will be emailed to our homes no later than noon on Friday, October 27.

Save the date! Harlan Harmelink, financial aid director at Dordt University, will be speaking about financial aid options, FAFSA, and all the changes for the upcoming year. Interested juniors and seniors and parents are welcome to attend. Tuesday, November 7, at 7:00 pm in the library.

This past Saturday in LeMars Kara De Jong on alto sax, Lanae Kuiper on tuba, and Brooke Meyer on clarinet auditioned for a spot in the Iowa All-State band. All 3 girls represented Trinity well with good auditions. Congratulations to Brooke Meyer who was selected to participate in the All-State band on November 18 in Ames.

Reminder: NICSTO applications are due by the end of this week.

The Senior class will be hosting the annual basketball alumni game on Thursday, November 16 with the girl's alumni game starting at 5:30. We are looking forward to a fun night at Trinity Christian High School. More details to follow.

There are a few yearbooks still available for purchase in the office. The cost is $30.
