*"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments:
for this is the whole duty of man." Ecclesiastes 12:13*

There will be a 2:30 dismissal on Wednesday, November 8.

If you see contractor's equipment in Trinity's parking lots, it is because they are busy adding additional lighting to the north end of each lot.

The chapel committee is organizing a special veteran's assembly for this week Friday, November 10, at 11:30. All are welcome to join us.

J-term is scheduled for January 3, 4, & 5 of 2024. If you have an idea for J-term, whether it be an idea for a project or a sectional you would like to lead, please contact Mr. Regnerus.

Reminder that Financial Aid night with Mr. Harlan Harmeling is tomorrow night, November 7, at 7:00 in the library. Parents of juniors and seniors, check your email from last week if you'd like more information.

A representative from Dordt University will be meeting with seniors this week to go through next steps in the scholarships process. Dordt scholarships are due December 1.

This past Saturday Evan De Jong, Kara De Jong, Lanae Kuiper, and Brooke Meyer auditioned for a spot in the Northwest Iowa Bandmasters Association Honor band. All four were selected to participate in one of the 2 bands. They will practice and give a concert in Eppley Auditorium in Sioux City on January 6. Congratulations musicians!

The Senior class will be hosting the annual alumni basketball game on Thursday, November 16 with the girl's alumni game starting at 5:30. A babysitting room will be provided for those who play, and the concession stand will also be available. We are looking forward to a fun night at Trinity Christian High School.

NICSTO Update: 7 families have applied for NICSTO. Please consider supporting these families by contributing to this program. All donations will receive an Iowa tax credit worth 75% of the donated amount. Contribution forms are available at the school office and will be sent out as well. If you have any questions about the program or how to contribute, please contact Joel Westra, Treasurer, at 470-1095.
